

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Rand J. Hooks Jr.,

Appellant,

v.

Helen Stephan,

Appellee.

Supreme Court No. S-17707

Order

Granting Late-Filed Appellant's Brief and Returning the Appellant's Brief for Corrections

Date of Order: 6/18/20

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-19-05932CI

On consideration of Rand Hooks's motion for acceptance of late-filed opening brief, and with Helen Stephan not opposing,

IT IS ORDERED:

The motion is GRANTED. The appellant's opening brief is accepted subject to the following.

The appellant's opening brief is being returned for corrections based on the reasons specified by the law clerk who reviewed the brief for technical compliance with Appellate Rule 210 and 212.

The opening brief is not in the proper format. A sample brief in the proper format is being provided to the appellant along with instructions for preparing an opening brief. Mr. Hooks may complete the sample brief, either by handwriting, typing, or replacing pages with typewritten arguments.

Any factual assertions should have a citation to the record on appeal where that factual assertion is supported by the record; citations should be made after the assertion in the form of a citation to the record on appeal [Rec. [Bates Number]].

The record on appeal should have been provided to you electronically on a CD on 4/14/20.

The appellant may inquire in the Appellate Clerk's Office if he would like to see a sample brief that has been accepted by the Court.

The corrected brief with proof of service is due on or before 7/1/20.

Entered at the direction of an individual justice and under Appellate Rule 102(f).
